

Young Technology Scholar Award Application

OpenText and the Utah State Board of Education (USBE) are pleased to sponsor the annual Young Technology Scholar (YTS) Award. This award is granted to high school seniors who have demonstrated proficiency in computer information technology related courses and leadership abilities in their schools and communities.

Winners receive a scholarship award of up to $5,000. Winners are selected by the YTS Award Committee, which consists of representatives from OpenText, the Utah State Board of Education, and industry.

All applicants must be high school seniors enrolled in a Utah High School program who have taken or are currently taking a Computer Science/Information Technology Course(s), have passed a specific industry exam certification(s), want to attend a Utah Institute of Higher Education, and who have a cumulative GPA of at least 3.0. To apply for the Young Technology Scholar award, students are required to submit the following:

- YTS Award Application – student must be supported by their instructor
- Supporting instructor letter of recommendation
- One additional instructor or school counselor letter of recommendation
- Resume
- Official academic transcript
- Essay between 700 – 1,200 words and must address three topics:
 1. Tell us your future education plans.
 2. How my industry exam certification(s) will help me achieve my future goals.
 3. Summary of a technology-based project that you have been a part of.
- Proof of one of the industry exam certifications listed below
- Signed Media Release Form

Qualified Industry Exams:

- Any TestOut Industry Certification
