HB 76 Sub. 1	Public Education Revisions	Miller, Tracy	This bill: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> removes duplicative language regarding a college and career readiness plan; amends the Teacher Salary Supplement Program and the upcoming replacement Salary Supplement for Highly Needed Educators program to allow a local education agency (LEA) that experiences a carry forward or leftover balance to increase the amount the LEA provides to teachers under certain circumstances; adds the Utah Schools for the Deaf and the Blind as an LEA that may participate in the Salary Supplement for Highly Needed Educators program; increases the portion of appropriated funding the State Board of Education (state board) is statutorily authorized to expend for administrative costs for early literacy software, including the cost of an independent software evaluator; amends provisions regarding kindergarten to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> allow a child to enroll in kindergarten if the child moves to Utah after having enrolled in kindergarten in another state with different age requirements for enrollment; and repeal a requirement for the state board to create a process for an LEA to follow when an enrolled student in kindergarten is not toilet-trained; amends provisions regarding early learning plans to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> reduce requirements for the plans that LEAs submit to the state board; and repeal a requirement for the state board to use a digital platform to communicate with LEAs regarding early learning; amends provisions related to school fees to ensure that a school is not prohibited from charging a fee for a fine arts course; and makes technical and conforming changes. 	House/ to Governor	Support	Local GovernmentUCA 36-12-13(2)(c) Enactment of this legislation may allow Local Education Agencies (LEAs) to enhance teacher compensation through the Teacher Salary Supplement Program for the Highly Needed Educators program. This legislation could reduce allocations to LEAs for the Early Interactive Reading program by $255,000 reducing the amount of money available for reading licenses. Additionally, LEAs could see an increase in local revenue if they opt to charge additional fees for fine arts elective courses. If these additional fees account for approximately half of current curricular fees, LEAs could generate up to $13 million in local revenue. The actual impact will depend on LEAs' decisions to implement this provision and student participation levels. All of these changes would take effect beginning in FY 2026. Individuals & BusinessesUCA 36-12-13(2)(c) Enactment of this legislation likely will not result in direct expenditures from tax or fee changes for Utah residents and businesses.	Early Learning	Regulatory ImpactUCA 36-12-13(2)(d) Enactment of this legislation likely will not change the regulatory burden for Utah residents or businesses. Senate/ to Governor	None	Local GovernmentUCA 36-12-13(2)(c) Enactment of this legislation likely will not result in direct, measurable costs for local governments. Individuals & BusinessesUCA 36-12-13(2)(c) Enactment of this legislation could result in a statewide reduction in property tax credit to individuals that claim the homeowner's credit by an estimated $1.45 million in 2025, $2.92 million in 2026, $4.40 million in 2027, $5.89 million in 2028, and $7.39 million in 2029 when the credit may be reduced to zero. Upon phase out of the homeowner's credit, property valuations for individuals currently receiving the homeowner's credit may increase by 20% in the absence of the valuation reduction. For a recipient who owns a $500,000 primary residence, this could result in a tax increase of approximately $930.30, while other taxpayers may see a decrease in property taxes of approximately $4.45 for a $500,000 primary residence and $16.20 for a $1,000,000 business; individual impacts will vary. Enactment of this legislation could also result in a reduction in total renter's credit received statewide by an estimated $18,000 in 2025, $26,500 in 2026, and $35,600 in 2027 in aggregate resulting from changes to the annual CPI adjustments; individual impacts will vary.	Financial Operations	Regulatory ImpactUCA 36-12-13(2)(d) Enactment of this legislation likely will not change the regulatory burden for Utah residents or businesses. Senate/ filed	None	Local GovernmentUCA 36-12-13(2)(c) To the extent that local taxation rates remain the same, enactment of this legislation may shift funding among participating school districts beginning in FY 2027 due to the reduction of state hold harmless provisions outlined in the bill. The amount of this state funding shift will vary based on local property rates levied by the local school board and the qualification of state funding under the program. The bill establishes a three-year transition period, ensuring that no district receives less than its FY 2025 allocation in FY 2026. In subsequent years, some districts may see a gradual reduction in state funding as the hold harmless provisions phase out. The overall funding reallocation is estimated to average between $883,800 and $1,015,400 per district, though actual impacts may vary based on local tax rates and program qualification. SB 337 Sub. 1	Land Use and Development Amendments	Cullimore, Kirk A.	This bill: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> defines terms and modifies definitions; provides a severability provision; creates the Beehive Development Agency (agency) under Utah Constitution, Article XI, as a political subdivision of the state that is an independent, nonprofit, separate body corporate and politic, with perpetual succession, and a public corporation; provides that appropriations to the agency are nonlapsing; establishes the agency board and describes the agency powers and duties; describes the purposes of a significant community impact project; creates a revolving loan fund and establishes a loan committee; authorizes the agency to create a public infrastructure district for a significant community project area; describes the potential revenue sources of a significant community impact project area, including property tax differential and revenue generated by certain taxes; repeals provisions establishing the Governor's Office of Economic Opportunity (office) board of directors and the Unified Economic Opportunity Commission; creates the Economic Opportunity Coordinating Council (council); changes the executive director of the office to the commissioner of the office; provides that the commissioner of the office shall: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> receive guidance from the council regarding statewide strategic objectives; establish strategies for and actively recruit targeted industries identified by the council; encourage a business to permanently relocate to, or significantly expand operations in, the state; establish strategies for and actively support entrepreneurship and small business development; coordinate economic development activities; and coordinate with various departments and officials in order to consolidate certain state housing programs from the Division of Housing and Community Development within the office by July 1, 2026; removes the sunset on the Utah Housing Corporation; and makes technical and conforming changes. 	Senate/ filed		Local GovernmentUCA 36-12-13(2)(c) Enactment of this legislation permits the Beehive Development Agency to receive a portion of the property tax differential generated in a project areas. The Agency could receive 75% of the property tax differential for the first 25 years and 50% for the next 15 years if approved by resolution, within the project area. To the extent that property tax differential occurs within these areas, this bill may result in forgone property tax revenue to taxing entities in the project area and increased revenue in the same amount to the Beehive Development Agency. The aggregate impact is unknown, and is dependent on when and where project areas are created. To the extent that the agency receives a portion of the property tax differential generated in project areas, enactment of this legislation could shift liability within the project area for the minimum school levy to other districts throughout the state. The Beehive Development Agency Board will have the power to hire an Executive Director for the Agency as well as other staff as needed. The compensation for these staff and board members who are not legislators would be paid using property tax differential or other sources of funds received by the Agency. Enactment of this legislation could cost the Beehive Development Agency an unknown amount annually from its unrestricted funds for requested services like banking, legal, financial, human resources, information technology, etc. from the State Treasurer's Office, the Attorney General's Office, and the Department of Government Operations. Enactment of this legislation allows the Beehive Development Agency to levy under certain circumstances: accommodations tax, energy sales and use tax, transient room tax, resort communities tax, and additional resort communities tax. The aggregate impact to local government from forgone revenue is unknown, and is dependent on if, when, and where impact project areas are created, which taxes are imposed, the rate that they are imposed at, and the quantity of taxable transactions. To the extent that the Beehive Development Agency creates a Public Infrastructure District (PID), enactment of this legislation would permit a PID to levy a property tax with a restricted maximum rate of 0.015%. Incremental value would not be subtracted in project areas created by the agency from the certified tax rate, or include project area new growth from these project areas in the definition of project area new growth. As such, entities that participate in these projects will transfer a portion of revenues generated in these project areas and the tax rate will not be adjusted up to compensate as with other project areas. These entities also would not receive project area new growth revenues when these projects end. The aggregate impact to local government is unknown. Enactment of this legislation could increase collection fee revenue to energy suppliers to project areas by one percent of energy sales and use tax collected annually as an offset to the costs of collecting and remitting the energy sales and use tax proceeds. To the extent that individual violate conflict of interest disclosures, enactment of this legislation could increase revenue to local governments by about $350 per case for fines/fees. Local government entities could experience the following estimated expenditures: 1. Prosecutors - $812 per case; 2. Public Defense - $975 per case; 3. County Jails - unknown increase at about $83 per day per offender in incarceration costs; 4. Local Justice Court - unknown increase. Individuals & BusinessesUCA 36-12-13(2)(c) To the extent that the Beehive Development Agency				Regulatory ImpactUCA 36-12-13(2)(d) Enactment of this legislation could result in a small increase in the regulatory burden for Utah residents or businesses.	<input type="checkbox"/>
